I. Challenges of NCQC 23

- Display for reaching hall and food stall were not sufficient enough and participants has to ask here and there.
- On day -1 after 3 pm, there was lot of Electrical disturbances in the halls and power was going on & off.
- Block 3-4-5 had severe drinking water shortage and there was no water in Urinals. Water tanker was available from noon itself but the Security staff of RCOEM did not allow it till evening. This resulted in hue and cry.
- The online marks submission link did not work in 11 halls initially but later on improved in many halls. Overall online marking went off well.
- On 5th Jan, in block 4 & 5 Judges has to wait for post lunch presentation certificates up to 6.30 pm and many participant left around 7 pm. This has caused lot of logistic troubles for participating teams.
- About food there were mixed feelings. Especially south India participants wanted rice recipe as per their preparation. Overall food was good and the crowd was monitored and managed in a better way.
- There were many Judges who were only on "Suggestion Mode". Many judges asked question up to 10 minutes. They were cautioned about the time management.
- There were no of young Judges who kept their mobile continuously on message mode and watched WhatsApp message during the presentation with divided attention. Participants also noticed the same.
- The Vertex arrangements of stay was one of the areas for improvement Considering limited number of hotels, Vertex did a good job.
- The kit bag also had mixed feelings. While many appreciated and many also wanted some change with better quality.
- Participants also suggested to give precise items instead of big items which create handling problems during air travel.

I have attended at least past 16 NCQC and as per my view, it was one of the best conventions organized keeping in view all aspects. Nagpur chapter definitely eligible for "three cheers". Kudos to Nagpur Chapter.

Memories from NCQC-2023 @ RCOEM, Nagpur

NCQC-2023 event from Jan 3rd to 7th 2024 at Ramdeobaba College Of Engineering & Management will be having footprint in memory for all of us for a long time.

I remember Initially there were challenges regarding the organization of NCQC - 23 because of constraint like space, accommodation, logistics and infrastructure.

To over come these challenge all the GC Members decided to go ahead with positive intention of achieving the new height in organizing the NCQC-2023 and setting a new benchmarks make in history of National Convention on Quality concept (NCQC - 23)

Self is associated with QCFI, Nagpur Chapter Governing council as member from 2019 and was part of organizing team for earlier 05 Nos. Chapter level conventions, but NCQC-23 event was on a mega scale. Self-had felt the Hercules task requirements when visited NCQC-2022 at Aurangabad as jury and GC member last year. This year self along with Mr. L V Udan were assigned responsibility for Registration counter and kit distribution activity. Most important ingredient in success of the gala event as self will list down today are:

- ❖ Advance micro planning of each and every activity.
- ❖ Responsibility assignment to each member.
- ❖ Ensuring satisfying stated / unstated needs & expectations of NCQC-23 delegates and participants.
- ❖ Brainstorming to assess all probable failure, effect analysis followed by actions plan and contingency planning to achieve desired results.
- ❖ Synergy amongst team members, volunteers, other chapter members and head quarter.
- ❖ Zeal in each GC member of team to go extra mile to make the event a benchmark for years to come.
- ❖ Experience of Head Quarter team and support at all stages.
- ❖ Signage to ensure effortless movement of participants.
- ❖ Enthusiastic team of faculty member / student volunteers and representative from various organization.
- ❖ And support of enthusiastic participants helped in successfully completing activity with no grievances.
